TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

Located in beautiful Traverse City, a resort community on the shores of northern Michigan 's Grand Traverse Bay, Dakoske-Phoenix Addiction Treatment Services is a safe haven for those recovering from alcohol and drug addictions regardless of economic ability. We provide addiction therapy that works in a serenely stunning natural environment. You don't have to go it alone,. Addiction Treatment Services is a caring, safe place, where you can learn how to live a sober, healthful life and discover how to set free the stronger you that lives inside the addict. How do you stay sober after Detox? Most addicted individuals need a structured, healthy environment where healing can continue and new coping skills can be learned. We know you can succeed in staying sober. You just need a little help. That's what we're here for.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING: Is a structured, supportive environment. Women and men live in separate houses. Activities and responsibilities are geared toward increasing each resident's independence and ability to move themselves forward into a sober, successful life. There is usually a waiting list; however, upon screening determination is made based on need. Addictions Treatment Center will take clients from other Residential facilities, as well as referrals from out of their area, Parole Officers, and other Agencies. Please call for further information.
