

TRIBAL UMBRELLA

*Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa
Indians Behavioral Health
American Indians Substance Abuse*

Cultural Division

Anishinaabeg Edinokiwad (People working to sustain themselves)

To preserve Anishinabek Bimaadziwin (our way of life) from the past seven generations for the next seven generations. The Anishinabeg Edinokiwad Department (People working to sustain themselves) teaches our way of life to bring together traditional and modern life skills into daily community living.

Some of the Departments under the Cultural Division are:

- ◆ Sault Tribe Language Department
  - Traditional Language Classes offered
  - Day, evening and weekend immersion
- ◆ Cultural Repatriation
  - Caring for our Ancestors
  - _Ceremonies
  - Re-Internment of Ancestral Remains
  - _Funeral Ceremonies
- ◆ Cultural Training Department
  - Traditional Trainings and Protocols
- ◆ Mary Murray Cultural Camp (Sugar Island) Available for rent
  - Fasting Camps
  - Youth events / Camps
  - Maple Sugar
  - Crafts, Art, Song, Dance, Bead working
  - _Spiritual Gatherings
  - Other cultural day events

Please contact your ATR Care Coordinator if you are interested in the Cultural Division Services or Events.

